Technical Requirements:

1. The system shall save attempt states.

2. The system shall have clear instructions that are useable by grade school level students.

3. The system shall allow teachers to see their students' scores.